German Village Society Membership

German Village is one of Columbus' greatest treasures. As a German Village Society member, you will be part of a celebrated history that began over 50 years ago and that continues today through the inclusion of the Village on the National Register of Historic Places.

The non-profit, charitable German Village Society (GVS) and its many members function as the heart and soul of this wonderful community. Every membership ensures that this historic neighborhood's future will always be as strong as its past.

All membership fees support the operation of GVS, including its historic preservation education and outreach programs, its archives, the operation of the Meeting Haus, the Visitor's Center, the website and staff, as well as so many other German Village Society activities.

All memberships are 100 percent tax deductible.
